PRINCIPAL'S REPORT

Only one more sleep before PJ mufti day! We are all looking forward to a day of fun (and Red Food!) tomorrow when we come to school in our PJs.

Miss Campbell and I have been enjoying meeting with parents to discuss your children's progress. It is very pleasing to have the opportunity to talk with nearly all the parents about important aspects of schooling. Miss Campbell has worked especially hard at this time, writing everyone's reports, and I would like to express my appreciation of her dedication to your children's success.

This Friday there is a P&C meeting in the K2 room at 3:15pm. Please come along and show your support. This is a great venue for me to find out more about what you want at school and how I can best deliver that to you, and I would love to see as many of you as possible there. Children have fun playing in the playground while we meet, or they can occupy themselves with quiet play inside the room.

I have attached a General Permission Note as there are a number of things that we need your permission for and it seemed pertinent to address these all at once. You will note that it actually encompasses several years, so unless circumstances change, there will be no need for one for some time to come.

We are currently updating our online presence, with a refresh of our website to make it user friendly and current. As part of this, I am considering a social media account to help get information about our school out there for you and prospective families to access. As part of this, I have included a very short survey on the back page to find out your views about this. Please let me know how you feel and what you think so I can make a decision that suits us as a community.
