STEWART HOUSE CONCERT

Next Thursday 2 November is the big day for our Tweed Small Schools Concert. Twelve small schools will entertain with music and dance items.

We call it the Stewart House Concert because all the profits are donated to Stewart House, a charity which gives to underprivileged students across the state.

The concert has traditionally been held every two years and we have continued that tradition this year.

This year there will be two performances on the Thursday, one at 10:30am and one at 6:30pm.

Tickets for the concert are in high demand and we have been allocated a limited number for each performance.

They are available by returning the slip below with cash to the school office by Monday 30 October.

We have only been allocated 2 tickets per family, so are giving only 2 tickets in the initial sales. After Monday, unsold tickets will be allocated to people who have requested reserve tickets.

The attached note has permission for your child to travel to the matinee performance by bus.

It also has information about clothes that your child needs to wear to school on Thursday. If you don't have these clothes, please let us know, so we can make other arrangements.

This is a fantastic opportunity for the students to present to a larger audience, as well as an opportunity to showcase our school. We would love every child to attend.

If you have any queries or any concerns, please don't hesitate to ask me.- Jenni McKeon, Principal
