Tell Them From Me Survey

As part of our ongoing school improvement program, we survey our senior students each year using an anonymous survey from the Department of Education. This is conducted twice a year. Attached to this newsletter is a permission slip and explanation for students in years 4-6. Parents need not do anything if they agree to their child's participation, but if you do not want your child to participate in this year's survey you will need to return the note by Friday.

Book Fair

Next Tuesday is Paws For Reading Book Fair. Entries are coming in for our 'Pets Reading' competition. All that is required to enter the competition is a photo of your pet (or a stuffed animal) reading. One entry per student. Each entry gets a ticket into the draw for a $20 book voucher.

We'll be selling raffle tickets for another $20 voucher as a fundraiser for Story Dogs, who come to our school each week to help with our reading. Shirley and Darcy have promised to visit for the book fair, which is fantastic news as Darcy has been away this year due to an operation he had. Shirley says he is fully recovered and ready to get back to action with our year 2 students.

Sales at the book fair give the school money to spend on books for our library. Buying a book though will also get you a ticket into the draw for book voucher. You will receive one ticket for each item you purchase.

Students are welcome to wear mufti, especially with an animal theme. You don't need to go to extra expense or trouble. Some suggestions are animal headbands, leopard print pants, tshirts with animals on them, anything really will be fun.

Student Wellbeing Officer

Thank you to those parents who came along to the Tumbulgum Community Association meeting last week where I put our case for community support for a student wellbeing officer. This was well received and we have a committee working on this project. Paster Rob Stuttle will join a group of parents and myself. I am grateful to have such a wonderful community looking out for the school.

River Barbecue

Next Tuesday the TCA are hosting a barbecue and get together on the riverbank to remember the last 12 months. It would be great to see you there.
